Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis is the latest instalment in the UK no.1 bestselling Jessica Daniel series - but can also be read standalone if you are a new reader.After finding an abandoned package at Manchester's Piccadilly Station, Detective Sergeant Jessica Daniel has two choices. One option leads to the entire north west transport network grinding to a halt - and more importantly Jessica missing her train - the other involves her opening the box.For Jessica, the choice is clear - but what's in the box, who left it, and how will it affect her weekend away?This 50,000-word "half-book" is being released to celebrate the one-year anniversary of UK no.1 bestselling novel Locked In being released. It contains a bonus features section, with scans of the original hand-written plot outline and the full first chapter of the upcoming Think Of The Children (Jessica Daniel book four).
