Biographie de l'auteur Born to an Air Force family at an Army hospital, Melissa has always been a little bit screwy. She was further warped by her years of watching Monty Python and her strange family. Her love of romance novels developed after accidentally picking up a Linda Howard book. After becoming hooked, she read close to 300 novels in one year, deciding that romance was her true calling instead of the literary short stories and suspense she had been writing. After many attempts, she realized that romantic comedy, or at least romance with a comedic edge, was where she was destined to be. Since her first release in 2004, Melissa has had over 30 short stories, novellas and novels released with seven different publishers in a variety of genres and time periods. In addition to her publishers, she is now enjoying the freedom self-publishing has given her. Those releases included, The Hired Hand, a 2005 Eppie Finalist for Contemporary Romance, several CAPA finals, and several AAD Bookie Nominations. Her contemporary, A Little Harmless Sex became an international best seller in June of 2005 and was one of the top 100 Nook Books sold in 2010. Since she was a military brat, she vowed never to marry military. Alas, fate always has her way with mortals. Her husband is an Air Force major, and together they have their own military brats, two girls, and they live wherever the military sticks them. Which she is sure, will always involve heat and bugs only seen on the Animal Discovery Channel. In her spare time, she reads, complains about bugs, travels, cooks, reads some more, watches Modern Family for reference, and tries to convince her family that she truly is a delicate genius. She has yet to achieve her last goal. You can hook up with her at: www.melissaschroeder.net
