Biographie de l'auteur KC's brazenly honest style of writing in Love by Deception will no doubt make you think, while also raising awareness on the hushed subject of domestic abuse. Love by Deception will take the reader on an eye-opening, and at times disturbing journey of love and betrayal. During KC's most harrowing recollections she is incredibly candid, while maintaining a light-hearted manner with sprinklings of humour to draw you into the pages. KC bravely exposes the depths of her soul so you can understand and gain a raw insight into the complexities of domestic violence. KC is aware that Love by Deception is not a literary masterpiece; it was simply created from feelings of frustration and injustice. The author's true identity has been concealed to protect her from any repercussions should the book fall into the wrong person's hands. Books are subjective, and Love by Deception may not be to everyone's taste due to the high volume of violence and strong language - an open mind and a little empathy are required. KC is turning her 'wounds into wisdom' and is currently studying for a degree to become a Counsellor Psychotherapist.
