Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurRunning Gtes BBs in France is essential reading for prospective landlords (landladies?) and provides readers with a step-by-step guide to establishing and running a successful gte or bed and breakfast business. Whether you plan to do this from abroad, using a local agent or manager, or as a full- or part-time resident in France, this book will prove invaluable. Running Gtes BBs in France explains everything you need to know, including what property to buy and where; conversion and renovation; obtaining grants, loans and mortgages; legal considerations; record-keeping and taxation; equipment and provisions; advertising, marketing and publicity; dealing with enquiries and bookings; providing extra services; employing an agent; hiring staff; and much, much more.Revue de pressePacked with lots of really useful information. Well set out and easy to understand. I found the Case Studies very helpful. --(Tooty2, )Prsentation de l'diteurRunning Gtes BBs in France is essential reading for prospective landlords (landladies?) and provides readers with a step-by-step guide to establishing and running a successful gte or
